10. Move-out Term: Do you expect to move out of housing before the end of Summer Quarter 2009-10? (Responding to this question will not end your contract. You must still submit a Termination of Occupancy by the appropriate term deadline.)

- (1102) Yes, probably at the end of Autumn Quarter 2009-10
 (1104) Yes, probably at the end of Winter Quarter 2009-10
 (1106) Yes, probably at the end of Spring Quarter 2009-10
 (1108) I plan to apply for Summer Quarter 2010 housing

11. Group Information: Group name and password cannot be the same. Each must be at least 5 characters long and symbols are not allowed. Each must contain at least one alpha and one numeric character.

Group Name:

Group Password:

List Group Members (up to three):

12. Group Retention: I would rather be assigned to housing lower on my list of choices than be split from my group.

- No
 Yes If yes, through which choice? _____

13. Gender-Neutral Housing: If I am assigned to a residence with the gender-neutral option (Lyman, Munger, or Rains), I would like to share a room with a member of my group of the opposite gender.

- No
 Yes

14. Residence Choices: Rank your residence choices in order of preference. You must select at least one choice. "Academic year only" graduate residences close for the summer. Students who are assigned to those buildings are required to move for the summer and cannot renew their contracts for the subsequent year. If you think you want to stay in the same apartment for summer 2010 or the 2010-2011 year, you should select residence choices that are open all year. Full year contracts may be terminated at the end of spring by filing a Termination of Occupancy by the appropriate deadline.
