

CAN WE TALK ABOUT CHARLOTTESVILLE

...and the rise of HATE in America?

Join us for a documentary film screening of Near Normal Man and panel discussion about the far-right rally that took place in Charlottesville this summer and the recent rise in hate acts. We're creating space to discuss this trend and how it affects the Stanford community.

Rev. Osagyefo Sekou, visiting Scholar at Stanford's MLK Education and Research Institute.

Ben Stern, a 95-year old Holocaust survivor and activist against hatred.

Charlene Stern, Producer and Director of Near Normal Man.

Dr. Kevin Grisham, Assistant Director of Research, Center for the Study of Hate & Extremism.

Lily Zheng '17, a writer, activist and trans advocate.

Anita Husen, Associate Dean and Director of The Markaz: Resource Center.

Moderated by Dereca Blackmon, Associate Dean and Director of the Diversity and First-Gen Office.

October 16 | 4–6 pm + reception | CEMEX
